General English Language Course for Rural/Municipal Applicants

Australia Awards Timor-Leste is delighted to announce a unique opportunity for qualified rural/municipal applicants to undertake a 60-hour General English Language course. This course involves one week of intensive English language instruction in Dili, followed by part-time, online learning for up to 3 months. This opportunity is available for up to 15 qualified applicants currently residing outside of Dili.

Eligibility Requirements

To be eligible, you must meet the following requirements:

- You have completed high school or an equivalent course.
- You currently live in a municipal or rural area outside of Dili, Tibar, Hera or Metinaro.
- You have some English language skills, including speaking, listening, reading and writing.
- You are willing to take an online placement test to determine your suitability for the course.
- You have your own laptop / computer and can access the internet for online classes and study.
- You are able to travel to Dili in early 2025 for one week of intensive English language instruction.
- You are available to participate in online classes on weekday afternoons from 3:30 – 5:30pm.
- You have not lived or studied in an English-speaking country previously.
- You are committed to attending all in-person and online classes in order to complete the course.

Course Delivery

- Course duration: Up to 3 months in early 2025.
- One-week intensive instruction in Dili, followed by online instruction in home municipality.
- Online classes will be scheduled part-time, on weekdays during working hours.
- This course is facilitated by Lorosa'e English Language Institute (LELI). Participants must adhere to all rules and requirements set by LELI teachers and administrators.

Course Benefits

- Improve your English language skills including reading, writing, speaking and listening.
